

HONEY TRAP - AUDITION 2

READ CAREFULLY.

Premise: You are confronted by Ravi in the living room and you got caught doing something you weren't supposed to do.

It should feel like a documentary, "found footage," totally real. Don't "act" or over do it. Be in that moment and then deliver everything like you actually would. Again, make it a REAL conversation. I want to believe you are talking to me, so talk INTO the camera like it's your friend in front of you. Don't slate and don't have a "moment" or pause. Get right to it. Learn the lines so you know them by heart and can do them 20 different ways. Let them come out different depending on how you feel in the moment you deliver them. You can pace a bit around if you want.

Technical notes: Stand up. You should be waist or chest up in your camera framing and if you pace make sure you don't go out of frame.

HONEY

Okay, I didn't wanna tell you this, but I spent most of my life in foster care because my jackass dad was so abusive to me and my brother. My mom ended up killing herself over it and I had to get emancipated just to get the hell out of there, so since I was nine I was in and out of foster care, until I finally was able to get out a few months ago and guess what?, Alexis helped me out getting on my feet letting me stay on her couch while I was looking for a place, and then I found you and I thought I finally had some peace in my life. No abuse, no stress, just peace. So I owed Alexis some gratitude and wanted to help her out and trust me, I'll pay you back. I promise you, okay? I don't want to share with you all my problems. I just wanna be happy.

You have until the end of Tuesday August 10, 11:30pm to deliver it, but please do sooner if possible.
